- A large, well-lit physical therapy classroom with wooden floors, yellow mats, and various exercise equipment. The room features a drop ceiling with fluorescent lights and large windows with green curtains. On the left, there is a storage unit filled with colorful toys and a small table with chairs. In the center, there is a small orange exercise machine and a black exercise machine. On the right, there are large blue and red exercise balls, a white step platform, and a yellow mat. The floor is marked with yellow lines. A label at the bottom of the image reads "物理治療教室" (Physical Therapy Classroom).
